

Being nice goes a long way.

A qualified RV technician or professional RV salesperson can give you a full orientation of your new RV. Trade-ins are welcome at your local Canadian RV dealer. Many Canadian dealers are smaller, family owned businesses which value service and support for their customers.

Community.

Local RV dealers actively support community programs.
Visit your local RV dealer today to start creating memories that'll last a lifetime.

BUY YOUR RV CLOSE TO HOME.
IT'S BETTER IN THE LONG HAUL.

Learn more at www.buylocalrv.ca

It's good to know the warranty is included.

Purchase your new RV from a dealer in Canada and enjoy a full manufacturer's warranty at no additional cost. It's better in the long run to buy local so you won't have to make a long run for service, parts or warranty issues later.

Why purchase from a Canadian RV dealer?

Most Canadian RV dealers belong to the Recreation Vehicle Dealers Association which has a strict and professional Code of Conduct. They ensure you get great selection. Canadian RV dealers offer a wide selection to help you find one that best suits your needs and those of your family.

Peace of mind.

New RVs shipped to Canadian dealers are built to meet applicable (provincial and federal) RV standards and regulations. Your RV includes a full inspection before it's delivered at no extra cost. Deficiencies are corrected before you drive off the lot. There is also coverage in Canada under your manufacturer's warranty.

Enjoy great value when you buy in Canada.

No hidden purchase costs – all delivery costs including: freight, tariffs and duties are included in your price. Great financing – Canadian RV dealers can help arrange financing. Enjoy low monthly payments with amortizations up to 20 years. RVDA dealers not only offer great value on a new RV, but also help you save on after sale parts and service.